

GUN CONTROL & TODAY'S VOTERS

NSSF
The Firearm Industry Trade Association

How likely would you say you are to vote in the November 2020 General Election.

Very Likely
94%

In your opinion, which would have a more immediate impact on gun violence:

41% Enforcing Existing Gun Laws

38% Passing new gun laws

21% Unsure/Refused

What do you believe is the most common reason for someone to own a gun?

56% Self- or Home-defense

22% Hunting

3% Target shooting

2% Collecting

8% Other

9% Unsure/Refused

An increasing number of Americans have purchased firearms for self-protection during these uncertain times. Whether you own a firearm or not, how has your opinion on the right to bear arms changed in this current environment?

More supportive of right to bear arms

36%

Less supportive of right to bear arms

17%

No change

46%

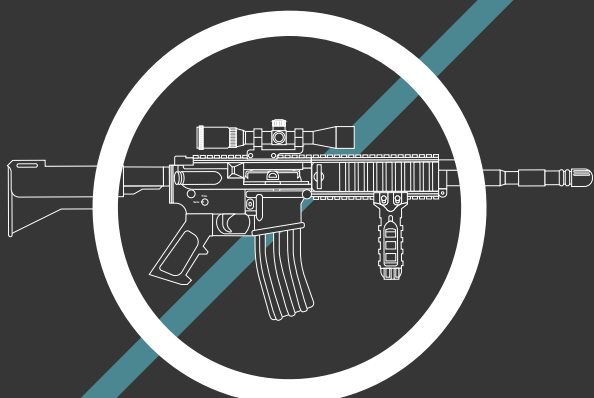

Unsure/Refused

1%

If you knew that a candidate supported gun safety and education programs, would you be more likely or less likely to vote for that candidate?

73%
More Likely

3% Less Likely

Some have proposed a ban on the sale of semi-automatic sporting firearms, which all only fire one round with each pull of the trigger.

Do you favor or oppose such a ban on the sale of semi-automatic sporting firearms?

51%
Oppose

32%
Favor

How effective do you think a ban on certain semi-automatic sporting rifles would be on reducing crime in your community?

57% Not Effective

33% Effective

Some people believe that there should be a limit on the amount of ammunition that a firearm can hold for self-defense, such as an arbitrary ten-round magazine capacity limit. What impact do you think such a limit would have on reducing criminal violence:

No impact at all or It would increase crime

48%

Significant impact

19%

Moderate impact

24%

Not sure

9%

Do you believe that citizens with a legally owned firearm should be able to choose the type and amount of legal ammunition they want to use?

Yes

54%

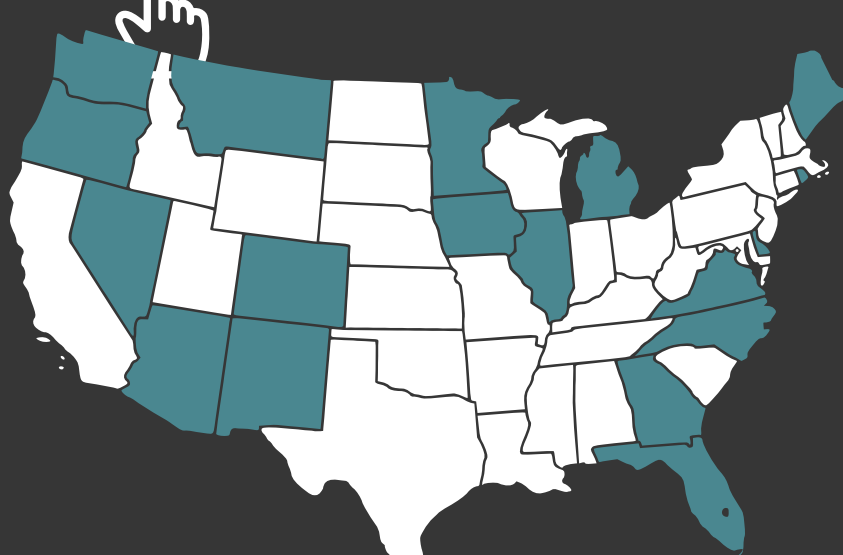

No

36%

10%
Unsure / Refused

SURVEYED STATES

NSSF
The Firearm Industry Trade Association